Carson City Toyota helps out local schools

Submitted

Carson City Toyota has donated a total of $15,000 to three local school districts to help with the impact of the pandemic.
Representatives from Carson City, Lyon County and Douglas County were on hand Thursday for the donation and all three districts will receive $5,000 each.

"I think, especially the way this year has been ... we just thought what a great way to help give back and do something for the kids and the school districts in the area," said Carson City Toyota General Manager Jeff Campagni.

To be able to send donations to three different schools districts added to the spirit of the donation.

"I thought that's what made it great. We got enough to split it up so that they could all have a nice chunk of change in order to do what they need to do for their schools," Campagni said.

Dolores was 63 when she passed away unexpectedly in her home in Victorville, CA. She was born on June 8 in Waco, Texas to Francisco and Jesusa Sanchez (both deceased). Dolores always had a passion for music. She was the squad leader in the marching band at Ontario High School in 1975. Dolores graduated from the University of Long Beach California with a major in Music. She spent most of her years working as a Chiropractic Assistant Manager until her illness progressed and her career came to an end. Even though her illness made it difficult for her to work, she continued to fight for her life with the same determination. In 1977 she married the man of her life who would be there next to her until her last breaths. Dolores will be greatly missed and her friends and family will always remember her. She is survived by her husband Jose B. Mena, her 2 daughters Jessica and Julie, and
