

ton, 30, was arrested after a deputy stopped his bicycle for riding on a sidewalk at North Carson Street and Musser. Dispatch said there were two warrants for his arrest including one on suspicion of felony possession of a controlled substance. Bail was set at $16,000.

■ At 1:09 a.m., a 60-year-old Gardnerville man was arrested after Washoe Tribal police reported he was wanted on an outstanding contempt of court warrant. The arrest report states he ignored lights and siren and refused to stop on Clear Creek Road until several deputies stopped him at the graveyard east of Horatio Lane. He was arrested on suspicion of failing to yield to a peace officer and the contempt of court warrant and bail was set at $5,100.

■ At 12:17 p.m., a 41-year-old cook was taken into custody at the Maxx Casino on a warrant on suspicion of violation of an extended order for protection against domestic violence. Bail was set at $3,000.

■ At 1:02 a.m., a 44-year-old construction worker was arrested after an off-duty dispatcher reported he was driving erratically and following his vehicle too closely. The defendant told deputies the reporting party had run him off the road. He was arrested on suspicion of DUI 1st alcohol, reckless driving and following too close. Bail was set at $1,575.

evidence after Robbins' arrest. The arrest report says she was carrying a large duffel bag the victim said was among the things stolen from the motorhome. She was arrested Monday and both were arrested on suspicion of burglary. Her bail was set at $25,000. His bail wasn't available.

■ At 2 p.m., a 51-year-old developer was arrested after deputies were called to a residence on Roberta Way for a report of a domestic battery. He was arrested on suspicion of Domestic Battery 2nd offense after deputies said the female victim had several large lumps on her head from being battered on the floor. He suffered a cut hand trying to take away the knife she grabbed to defend herself, according to the report. He was also held on suspicion of violating deferred sentence conditions that prohibited him from contact with the victim. Bail was set at $6,000.

TUESDAY

■ At 3:47 a.m., a 42-year-old transient was arrested after a deputy approached his vehicle at Governor's Field to tell him he couldn't sleep in the park. He drove away as ordered but was stopped after turning around and heading back to the park with no headlights on. He was arrested on suspicion of DUI 2nd offense drugs, driving on a revoked license and two counts of violation of suspended sentence conditions. Total bail was set at $5,500.

Schools need community members to weigh in on strategic plan

The Carson City School District is needing local community members to attend the quarterly Community Professional Learning Community meeting

6 p.m. today inside the Carson High School Library.

The purpose of these quarterly meetings with school officials is to accumulate feedback from community members on how the school district's strategic plan is performing and suggest ideas and systems to better help meet the goals, objectives and strategies of the district's plan.

The meeting will begin at 6 p.m. and end promptly at 7:30 p.m. Community members can park along the curb, both sides, in front of Carson High School and enter the building at the south entrance near the flag pole. Individuals planning

In the Saturday, Nov. 24, edition of the Nevada Appeal, the special monthly insert of First Nation's Focus included a feature story on page 3 about Chandler Allen (Paiute-Shoshone) and his role as economic development director for the Fallon

Tribal Development Corporation. While Allen's name was spelled correctly throughout the story on page 3, his last name was misspelled on the front page of the publication. First Nation's Focus and the Nevada Appeal apologize for the error.
