

FUN WITH SCIENCE

BRAD COMAN/NEVADA APPEAL

Darren Plain, 7, pulls the release on a water rocket at the Boys & Girls Club's Lights On Afterschool STEM night Thursday.

District protocol of hoax

By Taylor Pettaway
tpettaway@nevadaappeal.com

The Carson City School District said it's looking at how to continue to improve disaster procedures following a school shooting threat at Carson High School last week.

Superintendent Richard Stokes said though the threat was determined to be a hoax, it provides the district, law enforcement and community insight on best practices if another situation arises.

"We follow up on a credible threat because it's imperative to maintain the safety of our students," Stokes said.

Fremont expansion

By Molly Moser
mmoser@nevadaappeal.com

As student enrollment in the Carson City School District is growing at a fast pace and is expected to progress in the future, the operations department presented a selection of construction management risk to the school board Tuesday, for the approval of expansion and removal projects of Fremont Mark Twain Elementary School.

