

IN CARSON
 ern Drawl returns to the
 ry Arts Center tonight.
READ MORE ON PAGE A4

WET AND WEARY
 Manogue runs past Senators in the rain.
READ MORE ON PAGE B1

APARTMENT COMPLEX OK'D County commissioners approve an 81-unit proposal at the end of Crestmore Drive.
READ MORE ON PAGE E4

story

ed in more than 30
 ndoval's urging, the Foundation that state's sesquicenten-
 the project with a Nevada 150 mon-
 from those events.
 d Project Manag-
 Graham of Pacific
 attle said it was an ocess. They began 7 with meetings
 te officials, museum
 partners, Pacif-
 d AldrichPears of which specializes in exhibits. Together, he veloped the theme
 d the exhibits.
 he construction was
 ie at Pacific Studio
 d to Carson City.
 and his crew of Cody Birchman and Dan
 ent three weeks inuthing.

CHS GEARS UP FOR HOMECOMING

MUSEUM, A10

JORNAN / NEVADA APPEAL
 n to the public on

PHOTOS BY JEFF MULVIHILL, JR./INSTAIMAGE

ABOVE: The 2018 Carson City Homecoming Court is from left, Nicole Hawkins, Jack Dudley, Cassia Giustra, Jill Beglin, Lauren Thompson, Austin Salgado, Kahle Good, Kyla Cox and Peng Chen during the school Homecoming Assembly, Carson High School on Friday. Not pictured are Courtney Green, Adan Garcia and Hunter Rauh. For more information, see Senator Square on page A14.

LEFT: Carson High School homecoming candidate Jill Beglin tries to get an Oreo from her forehead to her mouth during the "Minute to Win It" game on Friday at Carson High School.

GS
 Advice
 Business
 Classifieds
 Comics & Puzzles

A21
A16
E20
C1

Obituaries
 Opinion
 Real Estate
 Religion

A24
A19
F1
A22

Senior Menus
 Sports
 Stocks
 Sunday Puzzles

A23
B1
A18
E23

WEATHER
 Mostly sunny with highs mostly in the 60s and
 lows mostly in the 40s.
Page A31