

School district announces new principals, administrators

By Dan Davis
Carson City School District

The Carson City School District has appointed seven new principals and district administrators for the 2019-20 school year.

■ Tasha Fuson as associate superintendent for educational services with the Carson City School District

■ Gavin Ward as principal for Carson High School

■ Marc Rodina as vice principal for Carson High School

■ Jon "Shelby" Tuttle as dean of students for Carson High School

■ MaryAnne Weaver as dean of students for Carson High School

■ Rodney Butler as vice principal for Al Seeliger Elementary School

■ Kevin Sady as vice principal for Mark Twain Elementary School

"We welcome all these

Rod Butler

Tasha Fuson

look forward to working alongside some of Carson City's finest educators as they become familiar with their new assignments."

In their positions, these administrators will be part of an educational system focused on developing the skill and talents for all students through rigorous learning experiences, supportive relationships and qualified individuals in their new roles," said Richard Stokes, CCSD superintendent. "They each will provide valuable and dynamic support to the administrative teams at their respective schools. These positions help administer the operational programs of each school, and I served as the principal at Carson High School for five years since she first joined the district in 2014.

MaryAnne Weaver

Jon 'Shelby' Tuttle

Ward, the new principal at Carson High School, has served within the Carson City School District for nearly 20 years. Most recently, he was the vice relevant real-life applications. They will be visible instructional leaders throughout the district and propel student achievement in the areas of curriculum, instruction, assessment, accountability and staff supervision.

Prior to her appointment as associate superintendent for educational services, Fuson

Kevin Sady

Marc Rodina

dean of students and athletic administrator (2004-19) at Carson High.

Tuttle, the new dean of students for Carson High School, has served within the Carson City School District since 2002. Most recently, he was the vice principal (2014-19) and administrative intern — acting vice principal (2013-14) at Mark principal (2014 to 2019) and dean of students (2013-14) at Carson High. He also served as the vice principal (2010-13) and dean of students (2007-10) at Carson Middle School.

Prior to his appointment as vice principal for Carson High School, Rodina served as the

Gavin Ward

Language and math teacher (2000-19) at Carson High. She also taught American Sign Language at Western Nevada College (2006-17) and served as a summer school teacher, administrator and secondary coordinator for the school district.

Butler, the new vice principal for Al Seeliger Elementary School, has served within the Carson City School District since 2001.

Prior to his appointment as vice principal at Mark Twain Elementary School, Sady served as an interim dean of students (spring 2018) and director of band (2006-19) at Galena High School in Reno.

Twain Elementary School.

Prior to her appointment as dean of students for Carson High School, Weaver served as an American Sign