

TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

PHOTOS: COURTESY

ABOVE: Carson City Rotary's Teachers of the Year for 2018 were recognized at the club's May 22 meeting. Pictured from left: Richard Stokes, superintendent of the Carson City School District; Mary Pierczynski, acting Rotary President and past Superintendent of Schools; Bordewich Bray Elementary School's Joanna Kaiser, Elementary Teacher of the Year; and her husband Reed Kaiser. The winners were selected based on an extracurricular teaching method they utilize in his or her classroom. Each recipient received a plaque and check for $1,250.

BELOW: From left: Mary Pierczynski, acting Rotary President and past Superintendent of Schools; Superintendent Richard Stokes; Carson High School's Marisa Morrow, High School Teacher of the Year; and her husband John Morrow.

