

IN HONOR OF TIM JONES

CHARLES WHISNAND/NEVADA APPEAL

Garth Richards, right, and his wife, Joanie, have established a scholarship in honor of Tim Jones, who died as a result of a crash last year on Kings Canyon. Before his death, Tim worked for Garth Richards, becoming the fourth generation of the family to work for Richards who built his first housing development in Carson City, the Comstock Hills subdivision in 1963. A $1,000 scholarship will be presented to a Carson High student in honor of Jones by the Richards over the next 10 years for a total of $10,000. The first $1,000 scholarship will be presented at tonight's CHS Salute to Scholars Scholarship Night beginning at 6 p.m. at the school's Senator Square. "It's an honor for me to do this," Garth Richards said. With Richards is Jones' grandfather, Tim, left, and his father, Jerome.
