

CHS UNPLUGGED

COURTESY

Students at Carson High wear their badges where they state they have unplugged from their devices. CHS students are participating in activities throughout this week encouraging them to take some time to disconnect from social media and their devices.