Epic Rides Discount Night in Carson

Nevada Appeal staff report

Junction, Colo., and Bentonville, Ark.

In anticipation of its expanding Off-Road Series of community-oriented, family friendly mountain bike events in 2018, Epic Rides on Tuesday announced Community Discount Night, an opportunity for nearby residents in each of the four host communities to receive up to $50 off of event registration.

The event will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Jan. 3 in Carson City, Prescott, Ariz., Grand

"The Off-Road Series events can't happen without the support of our host communities," said Todd Sadow, Epic Rides president.

"Whether descending past the towering Thumb Butte in Prescott, taking in the massive Book Cliffs near Grand Junction, witnessing the remarkable emerald beauty of Lake Tahoe above Carson City or rolling 29's on hand-built trail in the foothills of Northwest Arkansas Ozark mountains, the Off-Road Series builds local pride in its host communities, and we aim to foster that pride by offering residents special pricing on Epic Rides' events."

Attendees can register for any and all four events for the same $50 off. The discount night will be held at the Fox Brewpub in Carson City. The signup fee will be $80 with the $50 discount and those 18 and under will receive an additional discount.

Grinch-like prices for C

Nevada Appeal staff report

GasBuddy, a website that monitors gas prices, on Tuesday projected average Christmas Day gas prices will be their highest since 2013. However, there's some good news — average gas prices have fallen in every state in the last month as demand for gasoline cools off with winter returning in full force, led by states in the Great Lakes which have seen drops of more than 15 cents per gallon in recent weeks.

GasBuddy projects the national average gas price this Christmas will be $2.39 per gallon, a 12-cent since Thanksgiving, the priciest Christmas years (2013: $3.24 cents higher than last year.
