Additional members may be appointed at the discretion of the district superintendent.

Listed below are the members of the evaluation committee and their designated representation on the committee who have determined these materials align to support the Nevada Academic Content Standards for the subject area. If the textbook was evaluated by classroom piloting and found to support the State Standards for the subject, list below the name(s) of the piloting teacher(s) and their grade level and/or subject:

NRS 390.140.2 states: “A textbook must not be selected for use in the public schools in classes in literature, history or social sciences unless it accurately portrays the cultural and racial diversity of our society, including lessons on the contributions made to our society by men and women from various racial and ethnic backgrounds.”

|--|-----|----|-----|
| 1. Portray the cultural and racial diversity of our society? | | | |
| 2. Include lessons on contributions made to society by men and women from various racial and ethnic backgrounds? | | | |

If your evaluation process noted EXCEPTIONS to the Nevada Academic Content Standards or your district’s goals and objectives, attach a detailed response for each. Use this page to provide this information, making copies as may be needed.

E. TEMPLATE/RUBRIC and LISTING OF SUMMARY STEPS undertaken that describes the steps completed to reach the decision in the selection of the textbook is on file at the district offices. Additionally, the District may elect the OPTION to create its own Rubric and secondly to further submit the Rubric used in reaching their decision on the selection of the textbook to this Report.

CCSD began the RFP process in October 2018. Once the RFP process was completed, the textbook adoption committee reviewed all the publishers that submitted. Based on the initial rubric scoring, the committee determined that publisher presentations were necessary and invited three publishers to present their textbooks and online platforms. Three 2-hours sessions were scheduled and all the committee members attended. After another round of rubric scoring, the committee determined that Houghton Mifflin Harcourt and its product Bien Dit! best aligned with the NVACS, along with supporting the curriculum and assessments that have been developed by the French teachers at Carson High School. The committee overwhelmingly agreed that Bien Dit! will support students to be successful.
