STUDENTS

STUDENT CASES INVOLVING LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

The Carson City School District will cooperate with law enforcement agencies within the parameters of the law in regard to cases of suspected juvenile criminal activity.

Students Taken into Custody

The School District shall permit representatives of law enforcement agencies to enter school grounds and contact students as authorized by Chapter 62C of Nevada Revised Statutes for the purpose of taking a student into custody.

School officials shall release a student to a law enforcement officer, provided the officer shows proper identification and signs a release of student form. (See Appendix A).

On taking a student into custody, the law enforcement officer shall, without undue delay, attempt to notify, the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the student without due delay as required by NRS 62C.010 (2). In addition, the District will, attempt to notify the parent(s) or guardian(s) of the students being taken into custody.

Questioning of Students by Law Enforcement Agency

District employees may allow law enforcement officials to enter school property to interview a student, either as a witness to a crime or as a suspect of a crime.

The District shall attempt to notify the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of students who are requested to submit to interview by law enforcement agencies, including law enforcement officers and child abuse investigators, prior to such interview or as soon thereafter as practicable. If a parent or guardian cannot be located, a District representative will be present during the interviewing of the student, unless the officer or investigator prohibits the presence of such representative.
