

ed after disturbance call motorhome.

King was known to deputies from prior law incidents and had an felony and misdemeanor for his arrest. The warrant was for a sex-related charge King was reportedly in possession of various weapons. King refused to leave the motorhome. Deputies attempted to make contact with both King and Lee for several hours. A search warrant was obtained. A team of deputies began executing the search warrant and made contact with King and Lee from outside the motorhome. King assaulted deputies and was subdued with the use of a taser.

King was arrested on the following charges:

■ Carrying a Concealed Firearm without a Permit, a Felony;

■ Assault on a Peace Officer, a Gross Misdemeanor;

■ Obstructing/Resisting a Public Officer, a Misdemeanor;

■ Contempt of Court – On the Original Charge of Battery, a Misdemeanor.

Lee was arrested for Obstructing/Resisting a Public Officer, a Misdemeanor.

Both were booked into the Lyon County jail.

Lake Tahoe region Sunday

Geological Survey said.

It hit at a depth of 1.2 miles and was followed by a 2.8 magnitude quake two minutes later and a 2.7 magnitude jolt at 8:45 a.m.

The USGS said light shaking was reported on all sides of the lake. No significant damage was reported.

and paraphernalia. He was also charged with possession of prescription drugs without a prescription. His bail was $3,500. He was $6,000. At 2:14 p.m., Ian Shatsky, was charged with battery 1st after he responded to a report on Travis Drive. The report says he was intoxicated when he had an argument with the female victim and grabbed her arms and threw her to the floor. A neighbor reported seeing him kick the woman's door, denting it. He was charged with destruction of property and harassment. He was held because of the conditions of his alternative sentencing and the fact he admitted to using heroin and said there was meth in his vehicle. He was charged with possession of meth and violating pre-trial conditions. Bail was set at $5,500.

■ At 6:18 p.m., Travis Gent, 30, was arrested on multiple felony counts at the entrance to Mills Park. The vehicle was searched after he admitted to using heroin earlier in the day. He was charged with possession of heroin and paraphernalia, four counts of possession of prescription pills without a prescription and two counts of possessing credit cards without the

COURTESY

The Carson City Republican Women has awarded Olivia Syndergaard a scholarship.

Olivia Syndergaard wins GOP women scholarship

Submitted

Carson City Republican Women held their April 20 meeting at the Casino Fandango. As has been done for the past many years, CCRW awards a $2,000 scholarship to a graduating senior from the greater Carson City area.

This year three very qualified seniors made presentations to the members of the club and the winner was Olivia Syndergaard.

In addition Miranda Hoover was the guest speaker and as always an inspiration to the members and graduating seniors with regards to her accomplishments and insights.

Funding for the scholarship comes from proceeds from the annual Nevada Day Pancake Breakfast which is held at the Governor's Mansion.

Carson City Republican Women are proud to offer this scholarship and are rewarded by having the opportunity to meet and welcome our students as they move forward in their education.

Ready to take the wheel?

Become a professional operator with Lake Tahoe's premier public transit district.

TTD is seeking responsible, personable, and reliable individuals for