

Carson City fifth graders to sing at tree lighting event

Carson City School District

Fifth graders from all six public elementary schools as well as Carson Montessori, Bethlehem Lutheran and Saint Teresa's will perform as a unified holiday choir for the annual Silver and Snowflake Festival of Lights on the Capitol steps in downtown Carson City at 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Music teachers from the schools have been teaching and practicing the musical arrangements since early November. More than 300 students from the combined nine schools, including six Carson City School District elementary schools (Bordewich-Bray, Empire, Fremont, Fritsch, Mark Twain and

Holiday with a Hero gives children in transition a happier holiday

Nevada Appeal staff report

Holiday with a Hero, a partnership between the Carson City Sheriff's Office, Fire Department and School District, helps underprivileged children in Carson City at Christmas.

It will take place from 8 to 11 a.m. Dec. 15 at the Carson City Walmart, 3200 Market St.

The event seeks uniformed volunteers from local agencies to help with the annual Christmas shopping spree. Due to changes in the event this year, signup slots are limited. Volunteers will be required to follow current COVID-19 mandates.

The program pairs first responders and other local volunteers with students in the McKinney-Vento Students-in-Transition program for an annual Christmas shopping trip. Students are provided gift cards and escorted by their
